There will be a big selection of nice broke horses at this sale. We will have about 25 of our own horses that we have gathered from western and southern ranches. There will be top bloodlines to go along with some outstanding horses. We will be taking horse consignments as well and expect to have quite a few. We expect to have a good spring market on the well broke horses that have had a job, the demand for those horses is always high. People want good solid horses that they can ride right away and enjoy. You can come Friday to check out the horses before hand and we will have a preview at 10am Saturday so come check out the horses before the sale.
